EMPLOYEE DONATIONS TO HELP TYPHOON VICTIMS IN THE PHILIPPINES

In response to a request from Chairman of the Board of Supervisors Zev Yaroslavsky, and Supervisor Michael D. Antonovich, we are asking that County employees consider donating to the American Red Cross Disaster Relief to help victims of the typhoon that occurred in the Philippines on December 17, 2011. There are more than 300,000 Filipinos living in the County of Los Angeles, and many have loved ones in the Philippines who can use our help.

Please distribute copies of the attached flyer to all employees and post the flyer in public areas accessible to all staff members. Employees may send donations via check to the American Red Cross at 11355 Ohio Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90025, or donate online at american.redcross.org.

For more information, please contact the CEO Office of Workplace Programs Office at (213) 974-2619. Thank you for your assistance with this important humanitarian effort.
